Summary

SOY Markets : Last week : Soy Oil has clearly broken down in all time frames. The Beans are excitingly close to completing a very powerful bear pattern in the long and medium-term, with no contradiction from the day chart. Meal is of little interest, save for the bearish clarity of the day chart. This week: Now the Beans are properly bearish. Oil remains so, although it looks extended, on the big picture there is still plenty to go for. Meal now, too, on the short-term chart has interest for the bears.

Weekly Chart – Continuation:

Wait for a push beneath the lower diagonal - note the possible continuation triangle.

Watch for the break down through 910.

Minimum move?
About 750.

Daily Chart Sep15:

Note the completed Double Top.

The Minimum move is down to the bottom of the Triangle...

The short-run bears are in charge... Will that Double Top be the catalyst for the completion of the larger triangle?

Sell a close beneath 898.

Monthly Chart Continuation:

The bear trend is still underway.

The break of the rising trendline support was the first critical moment.

Now the long-term bears should sell a break of the 28.16 level....

Weekly Chart – Continuation:

But bears should note the break beneath 29.56 to add on to shorts.

Monthly Chart Continuation:

Note especially the resistance up at 370.70.

The market may have failed there again. But there's no breakdown yet...

Look closer.

Weekly Chart – continuation:

The first powerful resistance at 370.70 looks to have turned the market again

Some sellers will be tempted.

Others, wiser, will wait for a break down through 302

Daily Chart Aug 15

This is the bear H&S top we talked about last week.

We are still sellers.
Minimum move 305...

Summary

CORN and RAPESEED and WHEAT: Last week : Remain clear of these markets. Concentrate on the long-term patterns and levels. This week: Despite the moves, and though the markets are close to important long-term levels, those levels has yet to break and need to be watched still to gauge the moment - not yet - to enter the markets.

Monthly Cont. Chart

The triple failure at the 800 level (having tested above it and been unable to sustain that break) was ominous for the bulls.

The completed a long-term Double Top encouraged fresh selling...

(The minimum move for the Double Top? About 300)

But first the market needs to negotiate the support at 335.25.

This is a well-structured bear market but traders should be cautious prior to a break of 335.

Weekly cont. Chart

In greater detail.

The market has failed twice at the 406 prior low.

The bears need to see a break beneath 318/346.

Daily bar chart Sep15 contract

There was no break above the 414/425/433 levels to really get the bulls going...

Note the collapse... No support where it might have been expected...

The short-term bears will still need the comfort of a break beneath 354.

Yet even then they will temper their bearishness knowing that the major long-term supports at 335.25 remain intact...

Monthly Chart Continuation:

The third failure above 500 looked bearish for the market.

The initial break beneath 385 set up the bear scenario ...

Is the rally back a selling opportunity?

Look closer.

Weekly chart

The detail of the rally back – reveals that this is the second attempt to break up through 392/405.

Sell into a failure....not yet a convincing failure here....a break of 366? Would that be the signal?

Not yet clear enough.

But perhaps a break of the rising diagonal would be....
