Currencies: Dollar Euro

CURRENCIES

The charts suggest that Sterling is under long and medium-term pressure against both the Dollar and the Euro. Short-term the picture there is less clear. The other intriguing situation is that of the Yen. The medium and short-term charts point to a serious test of long-term resistance to further Yen strength. If those resistances fail, there nothing to stop the Yen appreciation a good deal further. Watch our levels.

Dollar Euro monthly spot cash chart

This very long term chart, describing a bear parallel channel

The market broke the 1.20 level (which was also Fibonacci support) and now is POWERFUL RESISTANCE

We note that beneath current levels, there is little support of real substance until the 1.00 level of parity – where there is a coincidence of support.

Note too the possible creation of a bear continuation Triangle... Watch for a completion move down through the lower boundary about 1.06

The trading range of the dollar remains unaffected.

That band of 1.1875/1.2040 is massive resistance on any retracement.

Now look closer at the sideways trading range.

Dollar Euro spot cash chart daily chart...

For all the long-term bearishness, the short-term picture is bullish.

Note how the market has pushed up through the Prior Resistance 1.1096/1.1129.

Dollar Sterling Monthly spot cash chart

Cable has broken down through the Pivotal lows of 1993, 2001, 2008 and 2016 all of whom should now act as good resistance.

There is now formidable resistance above the market from the succession of lows over the last 15 years.

Dollar Sterling weekly spot cash chart

The detail of Sterling under pressure...

The surge up into the band of resistance 1.4563-1.4829 was repulsed.

And now, because of the break of 1.3498 a MAJOR PIVOT now MAJOR overhead RESISTANCE.

The market is ratcheting lower.

This is interesting:

The repeated failures to penetrate the band of resistance are clear.

Now note the break of the Prior Low and the horizontal at 1.3833 or so.

The bears are in charge, the break of 1.3833 (which is now resistance) will continue downward pressure on the market.

Watch for fresh selling on a break of band 1.2796/1.2863

But the market looks to have topped out around 125...

And has returned towards good support at 102.

Watch carefully for a break of 102.

Yet there is good support here from both the horizontal and the diagonal.

Dollar Yen weekly spot cash chart

Note the break of the horizontal supports at 105.44/103.30, the Yen bulls remain in charge in the short-term.

STOCKS: We like the S&P - the market is in thrall to powerful bull patterns which have some way still to go. The FTSE is approaching powerful long-term levels which may take a deal of price action to penetrate. But the medium and short-term trends and influences remain strong. Elsewhere the chart structures are not encouraging.

But the market has achieved very little in the long-term chart until the succession of Prior Highs ( 6796, 6995) can be overcome. Is that likely?
