CURRENCIES:

The Yen and the Euro are still growing impressively stronger. Our long-term patterns and predictions (stronger Dollar) are under threat particularly in the Euro. The Sterling too is going better but less emphatically. Note though the potential for more rapid upwards strengthening there if structures complete. In short, stronger currency trends since late September remain intact and continue.

Dollar Euro monthly spot cash chart

These powerful horizontal resistances repelled the Euro bulls

Now the market has broken beneath the upwards sloping bull channel ...

This is a major breakdown with very powerful resistance above at 1.04 up as far as 1.0635.

Note the recent bull retracement that has penetrated deeply back into the horizontal resistances and the bottom diagonal of the bull channel.

If the big picture is correct then the market should fail around current levels.

Is the retracement over?

1. Twice the market has bounced off the band of support from the two prior Highs.
2. And yet on the upside it has failed to break the falling diagonal.
3. Note in addition, that the failure was a Weekly Key Reversal.

The week chart lacks clarity until the falling diagonal is broken ...

CME S&P 500 daily Mar 2023 chart

This is interesting short-term if the market can break 4100 or so then there is a possible bull H&S on the cards....

But note the lack of clarity around the prior Low resistance at 3945.

There's real short-term uncertainty at the moment.

Wait for clarity.

The very long term chart lacks clarity because of the way the market broke back beneath the support from the successive prior highs.

Equally, the bounce back above those highs is impressive.

This is exciting: a bull H&S continuation pattern in the offing - (if the market can close and confirm on the month above the possible Neckline of 7600 or so just 7 days to go!)

Cautious bulls would want the additional comfort of a MONTHLY close above the Prior High of 7885.
